Annual Parish Meeting

The Annual Parish Meeting will take place in The John Lampon Hall
On Wednesday 25th June at 7.30p.m.

The Parish Council looks forward to hearing your views on issues important to you as residents of West Bergholt

Details of the meeting can be found in the current edition of the Village Bulletin and on the village website at www.westbergholt.net.

There is also an opportunity to send in any specific questions before the meeting. Please use the reply slip in the latest edition of the Village Bulletin.

Essex County Council's Youth Service, Youth Bus may be with us for the evening. There will be an opportunity for interested parents and youths to have a look at what will soon be made available to West Bergholt.

Agenda

1. Welcome and introduction from the Chairman - Mr John Gili-Ross
2. A short presentation on the completed Parish Plan and what this means for our community. This will be followed by questions and observations
3. a) Discussion on written issues sent in by residents
b) Any issues raised from the floor
4. Concluding remarks

Following the formal part of the meeting refreshments will be available and an opportunity for you to have informal one to one discussions with your Parish or Borough Councillors.
